SUBJECT: SCHOOL CONCURRENCY DEFICIENCY NOTICE

Dear Mr. Matovina:

You have applied for development approval for the project noted below in unincorporated Nassau County. Pursuant to the Public School Facilities Element of the Nassau County 2030 Comprehensive Plan and its implementing documents, specifically Section 9 of the Amended Interlocal Agreement for Public School Facility Planning, any developer submitting a development permit application with a residential component that is not exempt under Section 9.13 of the same agreement, is subject to school concurrency and must prepare and submit a School Impact Analysis for review by the School Board. Development approval cannot be granted without certification that sufficient school capacity is available to serve the proposed development. The School District has reviewed the School Impact Analysis provided for the development noted below:
