7. Conditions and Limitations.

(a) This Agreement is subject to the final ratification and approval of the Nassau County Board of County Commissioners after a public hearing held at least ten (10) days after public notice. Through the date of such hearing on or before March 25, 2024, this Agreement shall be binding upon the Seller upon its due execution by Seller and delivery to the County as an irrevocable offer. If the County fails to hold such hearing on or before such date, or if the County elects not to approve this Agreement at such hearing for whatever reason in its sole discretion, then the County shall have no obligations to the Seller, and the Seller shall have no recourse against the County and each Party shall go hence without day, and the offer shall be deemed revoked. In such event, any Earnest Money Deposit paid shall be refunded to the Board of County Commissioners. (b) Closing shall occur within ninety (90) days after the Ratified Date, on a date specified by the County upon not less than ten (10) days' written notice to Seller, unless extended due to Survey or title defects at issue per subparagraph 6(b) above or by mutual agreement in writing signed by the Parties (the "Closing Date"), at the offices of the Escrow Agent defined in Paragraph 4. above or any other place which is mutually acceptable to the Parties. Without limiting the foregoing, Closing may take place by mail or courier.

(d) Seller is responsible for delivering marketable title to the County. Marketable title shall be determined according to applicable title standards adopted by the Florida Bar in accordance with Florida Law subject only to those exceptions that are acceptable to the County ("Permitted Exceptions"). Seller shall be liable for any encumbrances not disclosed in the public records or arising after Closing as a result of actions of the Seller. Title shall transfer as of the Closing Date and Seller shall deliver possession of the Property to the County at Closing free of any tenancies, occupants, or personal property.

(e) At the Closing, Seller shall execute and deliver to the County a General Warranty Deed (the "Deed") in substantially the form and content attached hereto as Exhibit 2 and incorporated herein by reference, conveying marketable record title to the Property to the County, subject only to the Permitted Exceptions. (f) If ownership of the Property is held in a partnership, limited partnership, corporation, trust, or any form of representative capacity specified in Section 286.23, Florida Statutes, Seller shall execute and deliver an affidavit in substantially the form and content attached hereto as Exhibit 3 and incorporated herein by reference. Seller shall also execute a closing statement, an owner's affidavit including matters referenced in Section 627.7842(b), Florida Statutes, and such other documents as needed to convey marketable record title as provided.

8. Due Diligence Period and County's Entry on Property.

(a) County will, at County's expense and within ninety (90) days ("Due Diligence Period") after Effective Date and in County's sole and absolute discretion, determine whether the Property is suitable for County's intended use. During the Due Diligence Period, County may conduct a Phase 1 environmental assessment and any other tests, analyses, surveys, and investigations ("Inspections") that County deems necessary to determine to County's satisfaction the Property's engineering, architectural, and environmental properties; zoning and zoning restrictions; subdivision statutes; soil and grade; availability of access to public roads, water, and other utilities; consistency with local, state, and regional growth management plans; availability of permits, government approvals, and licenses; and other Inspections the County deems appropriate.

(b) If the Property must be rezoned, County will obtain the rezoning from the appropriate government agencies. Seller will sign all documents County is required to file in connection with development or rezoning approvals.

(c) After the Effective Date and for as long as this Agreement is in effect and provided that the Property is not damaged and is left in a clean and safe condition, the Seller hereby gives permission to the County or its agents to enter upon any portion of the Property to conduct, at the County's sole expense, any and all Inspections along with such tests as the County may choose to perform including, but not limited to, environmental testing, topographic surveys, core borings, soil test pits and load bearing tests as may be required by the County to determine the physical characteristics of the substrata of the Property. The County shall not be required to restore the Property substantially to its condition immediately prior to such tests unless the Closing does not occur in which case, the County will restore the Property substantially to its condition immediately prior to such tests.

(d) In the event any of the referenced testing reveals that the Property is not suitable for the purposes of expansion of regional park lands as designed by the County on it or there exists the possible existence of Hazardous Substances related to the Property, then the County, at its sole discretion, may terminate this Agreement.

(e) Notwithstanding termination by the County and without waiving and subject to and within the limitations set forth in Section 768.28, Florida Statutes, the County shall indemnify and save harmless and defend the Seller from and against any and all claims, suites, actions, damages, liabilities, expenditures or causes of action of whatsoever kind to the extent caused by the County's actions to determine the physical characteristics of the Property, including but not limited to, environmental testing, topographic surveys, core borings, soil tests pits and load bearing tests except for the discovery of conditions not created by the County. Nothing herein is intended to serve as a waiver of the County's sovereign immunity nor does it extend the County's liability beyond the limits established in Section 768.28, Florida Statutes. Additionally, nothing herein will be construed as consent by the County to be sued by third parties in any matter arising out of this Agreement.

9. Eminent Domain.

a) On the date of the Closing, the Property shall be in the same condition as it now is in, except for reasonable wear and tear and the improvements by the Seller as provided herein.

b) If all or any material portion of the Property or access thereto, which prevents the use of any access to the Property, shall be taken by public authority or notice of such proposed taking be obtained, prior to the Closing date, then, at the County's option:

1. This Agreement shall be terminated; or,
2. The County may consummate the sale, pay the full Purchase Price, and have assigned to it all claims and right of recovery on such taking of the Property.

c) The County shall make its election provided in subparagraph (b) in writing within ten (10) days after the Seller has notified the County, in writing, of such taking or proposed taking. If the County fails to so notify the Seller, this Agreement shall continue as if the County had in fact elected under subparagraph (b)(2).

10. Environmental Representations and Warranties.

a) Seller expressly represents and warrants, to the best of Seller's knowledge, that no Hazardous Substances exist or have ever been manufactured, released, stored, processed, discharged, deposited, used, treated, disposed, transmitted, transported, or handled on or under the Property or upon any immediately adjacent property owned at any time by the Seller. To the best of the Seller's knowledge there is no action, suit, demand, claim, hearing, notice or demand letter, notice of violation, investigation, or proceeding pending or threatened against the Seller relating in any way in violation of any regulation, code, plan, order, decree, judgment, injunction, notice or demand letter issued, entered, promulgated or approved by any Federal, State, or Local agency. The Seller has neither used nor permitted the use of the Property for any such purpose.

b) Subparagraph (a) hereof is a representation and warranty by the Seller to the County, its successors, and assigns, which shall survive the Closing in perpetuity.

11. Environmental Audit. As provided herein, the County is authorized to procure at its own expense an Environmental Audit (the "Audit") of the Property, and the County, its employees, contractors, and agents shall have reasonable access to the Property at reasonable times for the purpose of conducting such Audit. In the event the Audit reveals the possible existence of circumstances related to the Property which could give rise to liability on the part of the County on account of the matters set forth in Paragraphs 10 and 11 hereof, then the County may notify the Seller that this Agreement is terminated, whereupon the County shall have no further obligations to the Seller, and the Seller shall have no recourse against the County, and each Party shall go hence without day. In such event, any Earnest Money Deposit paid shall be refunded to the Board of County Commissioners. Such notice may be served upon the Seller at or any time prior to Closing.
